uniforms that all tailors' shops contracted for the manufacture of VP uniforms including the Annemann & Klause firm, were instructed on 19 June 1951, immediately to stop all work on KVP uniforms.<sup>1</sup> The Annemann & Klause firm was ordered immediately to turn in all uniform cloth including such that had already been cut for uniforms to Basag at Teltow. The making of uniforms scheduled for the Soviet occupation forces was continued.<sup>2</sup>

2.  Comment. Basag is a Soviet office which places orders for KVP and Soviet uniforms with East Berlin tailors' shops.

2.   Comment. The Annemann & Klaus firm seems to be a minor shop in East Berlin.
